Prayer of Reconciliation & Assurance of Blessing:

L: Judas, slave of greed, where are you?

P: I am here.

L: Peter, slave of fear by association, where are you?

P: I am here.

L: Thomas, slave of doubt, where are you?

P: I am here.

L: Men and women of Jerusalem, swayed by the crowd, where are you?

P: I am here.

L: Pilate, slave of expediency, where are you?

P: I am here.

ALL: Ever-present God, on this Good Friday night, we confess that we want to push the fast-forward button on this familiar story because it hurts so much. It hurts to think of the betrayal and arrest of Jesus. It hurts to imagine Jesus abandoned and suffering on the cross with only a faithful few watching him breathe his last breath. It hurts to watch your light overtaken by the shadows of the world. But we must find our place in this crucifixion story and feel the pain of the world, the pain of faithless decisions, and the pain of betrayal and injustice. We confess we are afraid to enter this pain with Jesus. Strengthen us with your courage and let us know you are present with us here in this moment and always. Amen.

L: Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe. They kept coming up to him, saying,

P: "Hail, King of the Jews!"

L: And they struck him on the face. Pilate went out and said to them, "Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him. So, Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!" When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted,

P: Crucify him! Crucify him! Crucify him!

L: Then Pilate handed him over to be crucified.
