Call to Worship

L: On this Transfiguration Sunday, we gather on the mountaintop with Jesus, wondering about what we will encounter.

P: We come to encounter God’s glory revealed.

L: We witness the revelation of Christ’s divinity made plain before us.

P: We come to witness God’s glory revealed.

L: We remember that God’s glory is not about spectacle but truth, not about show but Love made real among us.

P: We come to remember God’s glory revealed.

L: We follow Jesus down from the mountaintop into the valleys, as God’s glory goes before us and behind us.

P: We come to be sent out to share God’s glory revealed. Thanks be to God!

Hymn: “Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee” – Red Hymnal #1

Beethoven/Hodges

Confession:

L: Let us make confession to God and each other.

ALL: Holy God, we confess that we do not trust You fully. We put our hope in worldly gain and in human promises, and find ourselves defeated and lost when things fall apart. You have given us a love more fully than anything we could experience in this world, but we do not seek it or hold on to it. We look to our own means of assurance and security. Forgive us. Call us back to You that we may put our trust in You and not be afraid. May we hear the words as clearly as the disciples did on the day of Transfiguration; may we rise up and not be afraid. In the name of Jesus, who loves us and offers us forgiveness, we pray. Amen.

Words of Assurance:

L: We are God’s Beloved; with us God is well pleased. We are renewed and restored. We are forgiven and loved.

Welcome and Thank You...

We are pleased to welcome Rev. Susan Emmons to St. Peter's Lischey's Church today. We are grateful for her willingness to share her time, gifts, and leadership with us, and we thank her for joining us in worship. Pastor Emmons is a United Church of Christ Supply Pastor for the York Association. She and her husband, Steve, live in West York with their kitty, Stardust. They have three adult children and three grandchildren. Pastor Emmons is a dual-career pastor. Prior to her recent retirement, she worked for three decades as an attorney, supporting survivors in family and criminal court. She served two churches before attending law school and has faithfully maintained her UCC ministerial standing throughout her legal career. Pastor Emmons has supplied at several churches within the Penn Central Conference and in other denominations. We are thankful for her faithfulness to ministry and are blessed by her presence with us today. Please join us in extending a warm welcome to Rev. Emmons.

Thank You...

Thank you to all who contributed items for the recent SGASD Backpack Hygiene Kit program. Volunteers from the five participating churches assembled 117 kits on Tuesday evening, February 3rd at St. Paul's UCC in Stoverstown. These kits were to be distributed to students last week. Our next collection of items for hygiene kits will be after Easter.

🍲 Souper Bowl Sunday Results! 🍲 ...

Thank you to everyone who participated in our Super Bowl of Caring! Because of your generosity, we raised $211.50 for the Harvest of Hope Food Pantry – what an incredible blessing! In the spirit of the real Super Bowl LX, where the Seattle Seahawks dominated the New England Patriots 29-13 with a commanding performance from start to finish, our “teams” showed great heart and spirit in supporting our neighbors in need. Here’s how the donations stacked up in our friendly competition:

- Seahawks: $144.50
- Patriots: $67.00

Just like in the big game, the Seahawks pulled ahead in a big way – and every dollar and every can of soup donated helped us move toward a victory over hunger in our community. Thank you for your kindness and generosity. Together, we’re making a difference – one bowl at a time!
